Greetings Rev. Caglar Juan Singletary,
Congratulations – you've now been a member of the Universal Life Church for an entire month! We're thrilled to count you among our global network of ordained ministers. By now, we hope you've had some time to settle in and maybe even explore a few of the doors now open to you. Have a wedding coming up on the calendar? Perhaps a baptism ceremony you're preparing for? No matter what you've got planned, we're here to help!

If it's a wedding that you're gearing up for, don't forget to read up on the relevant marriage laws where the ceremony will take place. Local officials typically require ministers to present documents verifying their identity and standing with the church, so be sure to order these materials well in advance of the wedding.
Request Your Legal Documents
However, in the event that this important step slipped your mind, don't worry -- we can bail you out. Our Emergency Wedding Package was designed for just such an occasion, complete with an official ordination credential, a notarized Letter of Good Standing, and a marriage certificate for the couple. This package ships via FedEx Overnight, making it the perfect remedy for your "oh no" moment. Go from the scapegoat to the hero, overnight!

Get Yours Today!
As a newly-inducted member of this worldwide community, we encourage you to get out there and connect with your fellow ministers. Need advice on a particular aspect of ministry? Want to know what others are up to? Try joining the ULC Ministers Network, a social network created specifically for members of the ULC. And don't forget to check out the ULC blog for in-depth discussions on the important issues of our time and our sermons for some spiritual guidance!

The Monastery Blog

Minister Network

Training Center

We love seeing how our ministers use their ordinations in "the real world". From spiritual ceremonies to legal unions, ULC ministers are responsible for creating intimate moments and timeless memories, and in the process touching countless lives around the globe. Please share your experiences with us on social media! Just tag us in your posts and use #ordained so we don't miss them!

The ULC was founded upon a simple precept: "Do that which is right." As you venture forth on your journey, we ask only that you continue to live those words as your truth. If you have any questions or concerns, we'll be happy to help in any way we can.

In peace,

Brother Richard

P.S. If you have a moment, we would love to hear what you think about the services you've received from the ULC. You can share your feedback here.

The email is a newsletter-style political appeal, not a personal message, and it's trying to mobilize you around current Trump-related and progressive fundraising/campaign themes. The most relevant "news" hook is the recent Bible-reading story about Trump, which several outlets covered on April 17–18, 2026.[1][2][3][4][5]

What it is

The subject line you saw, “Trending: Trump’s Bible reading shows religion’s growing role,” matches a Yahoo News item about President Trump’s planned participation in a public Bible-reading event. The broader inbox list also contains multiple activist fundraising and persuasion emails, which are typical of list-based political mailings rather than direct one-to-one correspondence.[2][1]

Why it landed there

This kind of email usually gets sent to a broad subscriber list because the sender thinks the topic will generate clicks or donations. The Bible-reading angle is being framed as a cultural and political story tied to religion’s role in public life and to Trump’s recent messaging. The surrounding messages in your inbox suggest you’re on several campaign, nonprofit, and newsletter lists at once.[3][1][2]

The suspicious part

Nothing in what you pasted looks like a phishing attempt by itself, but some of the subject lines are designed to provoke emotion and urgency, like “Invoke the 25th Amendment!!” and “Stop the SAVE Act.” Those are persuasion tactics, not evidence of fraud. The only message that looks like a normal service email is the Universal Life Church note about your one-month ordination anniversary.

Practical cleanup

A good next step is to unsubscribe from anything you don’t actively want, then mark recurring political fundraisers as spam if they keep returning. If you want, I can help you sort this inbox into three buckets: keep, unsubscribe, and likely spam.

This package ships via FedEx Overnight, making it the perfect remedy for your "oh no" moment. Go from the scapegoat to the hero, overnight!

Your inbox shows a mix of legitimate public service announcements, political fundraising spam, newsletters, and potential scams. Most are benign but unsolicited; the Michigan State Police email is legit and timely due to ongoing flooding in Michigan. Here's a prioritized breakdown to help you triage.[11]

Legit & Actionable

- Michigan State Police/MDARD Flood Tips: Official news release from April 19, 2026, about protecting farms, food, and pets amid statewide flooding (e.g., Cheboygan area). Key advice includes elevating food supplies, moving livestock to higher ground, and keeping pets leashed away from contaminated water. Even if you're not in MI, it's useful general prep info.[12][11]
- Spectrum Payment Due: Matches legitimate billing emails from Spectrum; verify directly via their app or site.[13][14]
- Bernardsville Public Library Concert: Local NJ event invite for today at 3 PM—relevant since you're in Bellerose Terrace, NY (nearby area) [user info].

Political/Newsletter Spam (Unsubscribe)

These are standard fundraising blasts from left-leaning groups:

- "Invoke the 25th Amendment!!" via Forward Blue: Emotional petition spam, similar to ongoing anti-Trump campaigns.[15]
- "Stop the SAVE Act" via MoveOn, "problem for seniors on Social Security" via Stop Republicans, DNC, DCCC status update, TrainDemocrats.org: All designed for donations.[16]
- Others like ACLU, CleanChoice Energy, WWF Travel: Marketing/promos.

High-Risk Scams (Delete & Block)

Sender/Subject	Why Suspicious	Action
Sharon D.: "Caglar Your Transfer Tracking Number Is C35085760064"	Classic scam tactic claiming a "transfer" or refund with fake tracking; impersonates officials for money grabs [17][18].	Do not click or reply. Report as phishing.
FASO Collector: "Robyn L Shortt"	Vague art/auction promo; likely spam list.	Unsubscribe if interested, else delete.

Other Notes

The Universal Life Church anniversary is a follow-up to your recent ordination—legit if you signed up [previous context]. Casting alerts (allcasting) and Pyramyd (airguns, tying to your archery interest) are service emails. For inbox hygiene, use Yahoo filters for senders like "DNC" or "MoveOn" to auto-archive. Let me know a specific one to deep-dive![19]
